

HELP US SAVE THE MARINE LIFE

SATURDAY 19TH NOVEMBER 2011

ALEENTA RESORT & SPA PHUKET-PHANG NGA

Guest Chef Laurent Réveillac specialises in molecular cuisine and will showcase some of his renowned creations using liquid nitrogen in the name of charity to raise funds for the Pure Blue Foundation (www.purebluefoundation.com) that is committed to the regeneration and sustainability of marine environments.

Live cooking stations will be set up on Aleenta Phuket-Phang Nga's beach where guests will savour some of Chef Réveillac's specialties.

The evening will commence with the release of leatherback turtles back into the sea, followed by an exclusive cocktail dinner, which will be accompanied by entertainment and music spun by DJ Jamie O'Rourke.

Starting at 19:00, the charity evening costs THB2,900 net per person and includes the dining experience and free flow of drinks.
